Each question carries 10 marks. So the complete eLitmus Exam is for 600 Marks. They used to have this negative marking rule of 25% earlier and some websites still show that it exists in . But, the 25% rule isn't there anymore.

Sections	Number of Questions	Maximum Marks
Problem Solving and Reasoning	20 Questions	200 Marks
Quantitative Aptitude	20 Questions	200 Marks

One more thing is no negative marks for unattempted questions. Each section has its own tough level. But the Quantitative Ability and English are very difficult when compared to other sections.
